

For God's Little One

© 1999 Rod Hess

For you, O precious little one,
a gift from God sent from above.
An Angel Guardian to call your own,
to watch over you wherever you may roam.

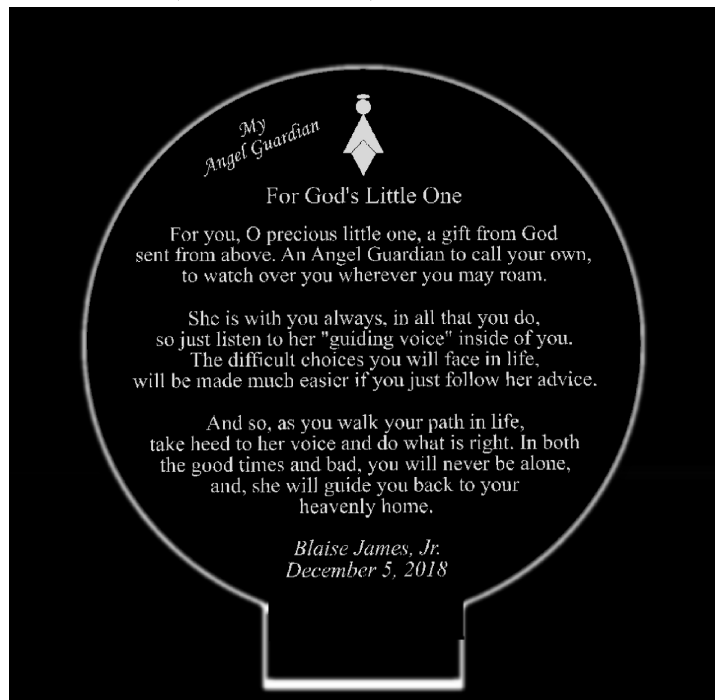

She is with you always, in all that you do,
so just listen to her "guiding voice" inside of you.
The difficult choices you will face in life,
will be made much easier if you just follow her advice.

And so, as you walk your path in life,
take heed to her voice and do what is right.
In both the good times and bad, you will never be alone,
and, she will guide you back to your heavenly home.
