

The Firefighter

© 2001 Rod Hess

Angels appear when danger is near,
they protect us from harm and help calm our fears.
They do what they must and make things right,
and then quickly and quietly — just vanish from sight.

Firefighters — they're like angels, you see,
for they answer the call to help others in need.
They risk their lives to lend a helping hand,
to save from danger their fellow man.

And so, as you lay your life on the line,
here's an Angel Guardian who will stay close by your side.
She will guide and protect you if you follow her lead,
and she'll help you complete your selfless deed.

* A great gift for the recent graduate of the Fire Academy who is about to begin a career as a fire fighter.
