

Reconciliation

© 2007 Rod Hess

There was only one Man who walked on this earth,
who was perfect in every way.
And, the message He preached of love and forgiveness,
still has meaning today.

Sadly, sometimes, we forget to show love ,
and we hurt our fellow man.

With angry words and selfish deeds,
and our unwillingness to try and understand.

Our relationship is strained by the experience we had,
and, we've lost that message of love.

It is my sincere hope that we can work things out,
with a little Angelic help from above.

Conflict, although a normal part of life, when taken to the extreme ruins relationships and wastes valuable time that can never be recaptured. We may then we find ourselves separated from those with whom we once shared a close relationship. The Reconciliation Light of Inspiration can serve as a stimulus to encourage individuals who are estranged from a friend, relative or loved one to take the first step toward resolving their differences in order to move forward in God's love.
